Registration policy at Bread of Life: To honor the commitment of registrants and presenters and to provide them with more timely notice of event cancellations, BOL has a two-week registration deadline for all events unless otherwise noted. If the minimum number of registrants is not reached two weeks prior to an event, the event will be cancelled. If an event is cancelled by BOL due to insufficient enrollment, or for any other reason, 100% of monies paid by registrant will be refunded. You may cancel your registration for an event by its registration deadline and be refunded all but a $10 processing fee. For cancellations after the registration deadline there will be no refund. Note: Retreats may have their own registration, deposit, and refund details. Call the office at 916-648-1803 for details.
