(Applicant's name) _______ has applied for admission to Listen to Your Life: A Sacred Voice is Calling, a program of the Bread of Life Center in Sacramento [www.breadoflife.org]. Each applicant is asked for a letter of recommendation from someone in his/her spiritual community who can confirm the willingness and capacity to deepen in spiritual life and desire to explore potential next steps in living life as a "calling". Please send completed applications to the attention of "Listen to Your Life," Bread of Life, 1260 Fulton Avenue, Suite A, Sacramento, CA 95825 or email to office@breadoflife.org.

1. How long have you known this person? In what capacity?

2. The depth spiritual journey requires much of a person – grounding in conscious relationship with the Sacred; an openness to growth and willingness to be unfinished; a capacity to be appropriately vulnerable in learning; space and willingness to make a commitment to the work of the journey, a capacity for compassion, and many other gifts and qualities that might be named. Please name some characteristics of this applicant that show suitability for this journey.

3. What are the spiritual strengths of this person?

4. In what areas of growth could this person particularly benefit?

5. What is your sense of how this person currently attends to his/her own spiritual growth and personal development?

6. What is this person's attitude toward/ way of being with those who have different life experiences, theologies, education, etc? Give specific examples if possible.

7. Is there anything else you feel we need to know to fully assess this person's suitability for entering this program of formation?
